

"Young people who participate in the arts are:
4x more likely to be recognized for academic achievement;
3x more likely to be elected to a class
office within their school;
4x more likely to win an award for writing an essay or poem..."
Source: Americans for the Arts

Facetime Theatre's After School Performing Arts Program at PASD Early Learning Center!

PLEASE JOIN US for the 2018-2019 School Year!

Students in this program will:

- Develop effective communication skills
- Learn to feel comfortable standing in front of a large group
- Participate in acting and improvisational games and activities designed to foster creativity, teamwork and willingness to take risks
- Strengthen speaking and comprehension skills
- Gain exposure to great writers (From Dr. Seuss to Shakespeare)
- Learn musical theatre songs from Broadway and off-Broadway shows!
- Perform in an end-of-year showcase on the last class of the year that features all students in songs, skits and monologues

When will this program be offered?

- Mondays 3:30-4:15pm (Note: Program runs October 15, 2018 – May 13, 2019)

What ages are included?

- Kindergarten and 1st Grade

What is the cost?

- $460 for the school year – scholarships are available

How do I sign up?

- Go to www.facetimetheatre.org to register; look for Classes & Lessons at the top of the home page and find "PASD After School Program" under that pull down menu!
- Call 610-983-4636 for more information. Space is limited!

Facetime Theatre also offers other programming and events at its Phoenixville Franklin Commons location, including theatre arts classes for grades K-12, private instrumental and vocal lessons, student theatrical productions, and birthday parties!